

Surge Energy Inc. has been made aware of a fraudulent job advertisement in circulation which claims to provide employment through Surge Global Energy. This scam may be seeking to obtain money and/or personal details, please be advised these activities have no association to Surge Energy Inc. and we highly recommend exercising caution when applying for job opportunities.

Please be advised that key steps in the Surge Energy Inc. recruitment process are that job opportunities are posted on our official website, require a formal submission process to an email address at "surgeenergy.ca" and interviews with Surge personnel. The process will never require interested candidates to pay money nor will anyone be asked to provide personal or private information in advance of beginning employment with us.

If you suspect you have been contacted by those behind this fraudulent activity, you may advise Surge Energy Inc. of this by emailing hr@surgeenergy.ca
